Experience life in the swamp during the early 19th and 20th centuries on Pioneer Island, location of the Maximillian Wildes family cabin replica and the Isaac Highsmith family home. Outside structures include a smokehouse, smithy shed, outhouse, tool shed, chicken coups, cane grinder and syrup shed. Visit the museum housing historic pictures of the park’s opening celebration in 1946 and prominent visitors like the actors and actresses in movies made in the swamp, as well as authentic farm implements, a Pogo the Possum exhibit, and an exhibit on the huge 2007 and 2011 fires.
